

12/28/2011

GLMRISANS
Control Comments
111 N. Canal Suite 600
Chicago, Ill. 60606

Re: Controlling invasive Asian Carp

One thing has already been established: Asian carp have a high aversion to sound.
Example is boat motors causing them to leap out of the water.

It would seem relatively easy to pipe sound across a channel underwater as a type of barrier. It would have little effect upon people above water.

Norm Spring
1416 Lake Ave.
Grand Haven, MI 49417