I am writing to urge a speedy response to the threat of Asian Carp migrating into our beautiful Great Lakes soon. Please do not delay prevention strategies. Studing the problem and delaying actual prevention will risk the "life" of our Great Lakes as we know it. I have been a resident of northern Indiana for most of my life. In particular, my family has enjoyed Lake Michigan and its beaches. The Asian Carp will seriously jeopardize the spectrum of fish now living in the lakes and will cause great damage to the lakes fishing industry.

DO NOT DELAY taking the obvious precaution.

Catherine M. Odell
