Good Morning,

I am writing to you today from the sandy beaches of Punta Cana, Dominican Republic. I saw in my email a meeting to be held through Trout Unlimited regarding Asian Carp and the invasiveness and therefore the threat they pose to the Great Lakes waterways. I am an avid fisherman and wish to help in anyway I can in the prevention of this species and thus the ultimate destruction of the fish populations within the system. The cities rising in and around the Great Lakes can ill-afford anymore economic impacts of such staggering proportions. I believe this letter serves as my affirmation in the TU message and I wish to continue to support and help in anyway I can to prevent this environmental catastrophe....

God Bless.

Sincerely,

Brian Blanchard
